FORM – PURPOSE – CORPORATE NAME – REGISTERED OFFICE - TERM

Article 1

FORM OF THE COMPANY

The company was incorporated under form of a French société anonyme with Board of Directors pursuant to a private deed signed in Paris dated October 4, 1968.

The company's shareholders modified the management form to adopt the structure with Executive Board (Directoire) and Supervisory Board (Conseil de Surveillance) at an extraordinary shareholders' meeting July 21, 1998.

The company still exists under its new management form between the owners of existing shares and of all shares to be subsequently created.

It shall be governed by the legal provisions applicable to French sociétés anonymes and, in particular, Articles L. 225-57 through L. 225-93 of the French Commercial Code and by these by-laws.

Article 2

CORPORATE PURPOSE

The company's purpose shall be:

- to acquire, sell or exchange, whether directly or indirectly, any lands, real-estate rights and buildings, located in France or abroad, as well as all goods and rights that might constitute an addition or annex to said buildings
- through its subsidiaries, to construct buildings on its own account or on behalf of group companies and engage in all operations directly or indirectly related to the construction of these buildings
- to operate and enhance property value by leasing such properties or otherwise
- to enter into any lease agreement as a tenant, in France or abroad

- As a subsidiary matter, to acquire or dispose of equity interests in any company or enterprise exercising any type of activity in the real-estate sector
- And more generally to engage in all types of civil, commercial, financial, investment and real-estate transactions directly related to the aforementioned purpose or in the furtherance thereof, in particular, borrowing and the constitution of any guarantees or pledges required in relation thereto.

Article 3
CORPORATE NAME

The company's corporate name shall be KLEPIERRE.

Article 4
REGISTERED OFFICE

The registered office shall be located in PARIS 9ème – 26, boulevard des Capucines.

Article 5
TERM OF THE COMPANY

The company's term shall expire on October 3, 2067, unless early dissolution or extension thereof.

TITLE II
CORPORATE FUND - SHARES

Article 6
SHARE CAPITAL

The share capital shall be €401,605,640.80 divided into 286,861,172 shares, each with a par value of € 1.40, fully paid-up.

Article 7
FORM AND TRANSFER OF THE SHARES

The fully paid-up shares shall be under registered form or bearer form at the owner's election.

The shares shall give rise to registration in an account under terms and conditions provided for by law and regulations.

The shares derived from a capital increase may be traded as soon as such capital increase is completed.

Any individual or legal entity, acting alone or jointly, that would hold a percentage of the capital at least equal to 2% or any multiple of such percentage, shall inform the company, by registered letter with receipt requested indicating the number of shares held, within five days following the date on which each of such thresholds is exceeded.

If the ownership threshold of 10% of the company's share capital (understood as the ownership of 10% or more of the rights to dividends paid by the company) is equalled or surpassed, whether through direct or indirect ownership, any shareholder other than a physical person must indicate in its disclosure that this ownership threshold has been surpassed whether or not it is a Shareholder Subject to the Withholding (as the term is defined in Article 32 of these bylaws). If such shareholder declares that it is not a Shareholder Subject to the Withholding, it must satisfy any request made by the company that it prove this status and, if the company so requests, it must be able to provide a legal opinion in support of this statement issued by an internationally reputed tax consultancy at the request of the company. Any shareholder, other than a physical person, notifying the company that it has surpassed the 10% threshold via direct or indirect ownership must also inform the company in a timely fashion of any change in its tax status such that it comes to be or ceases to be a Shareholder Subject to the Withholding.

Failure to disclose such information in accordance with the procedures and deadlines indicated in lines 5 and 6 of this article shall result in the forfeiture of the right to vote for that percentage of shares whose ownership should have been disclosed, as provided for by law, to the extent that one or more shareholders (holding together at least 2% of the company's share capital or voting rights) makes this request, duly noted in the minutes of the shareholders' meeting. The deprivation of the voting right applies to any shareholders' meeting being held until expiration of a two-year period following the date of regularization of the disclosure.

Any person is also bound to inform the company under the forms and within the time-periods provided for in paragraph 5 above when his/her interest in the capital becomes lower than each of the thresholds mentioned in said paragraph.

The thresholds referred to in paragraphs 4 and 7 are calculated in accordance with the legal rules of equivalence set out in Article L. 233-9 of the French Commercial Code.

Article 8 RIGHTS ATTACHED TO THE SHARES

Each share shall entitle, in the ownership of the corporate assets and in the liquidation dividend, to a fraction equal to the portion of share capital it represents.

All securities, both former and new, provided that they are of the same type and of same nominal capital paid up of the same amount, shall be fully assimilated from the time they entitle to the same rights; in possible distribution of profits as in case of total or partial redemption of their nominal capital, they then receive the same net amount, all taxes to which they may be subject being uniformly allocated among them.

The owners of shares shall be responsible only up to the nominal value of the shares they own.

The shareholders' meeting may validly decide an exchange, grouping, allocation of securities, capital increase or reduction, merger or other corporate transaction, notwithstanding the creation of fractional shares in the context of such a transaction; the owners of isolated securities or of a number lower than that required to take part in the transaction must, to exercise their rights, take over responsibility of the grouping and possibly purchase or sale of the necessary securities or rights.

Article 9 PAYMENT OF THE SHARES

In case of capital increase, the shares may, further to the decision of the shareholders' meeting or the Executive Board, if the latter has received powers therefore, be paid up at the time of subscription, either fully, or by a fraction that may not be lower than one-quarter of their par value, and the additional amount may then be called in one or more occasions, as the company needs it, at any such time and under any such proportions as may be determined by the Executive Board considering the legal requirements.

TITRE III
MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

Article 10
SUPERVISORY BOARD
FORMATION OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

The permanent supervision of the company's management by the Executive Board shall be exercised by a Supervisory Board formed of three members at least and twelve members at most appointed by the ordinary shareholders' meeting.

A legal entity may be appointed as member of the Supervisory Board, but it must, when it is appointed, appoint an individual to be its permanent representative within the Supervisory Board. The term of office of the permanent representative within the Supervisory Board appointed by a legal entity shall be given for the term of office of the legal entity. When the legal entity dismisses its representative, it must promptly notify to the company, by registered letter, such dismissal as well as the identity of its new permanent representative. The same applies in case of death or resignation of the permanent representative.

Article 11
TERM OF OFFICE OF THE MEMBERS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD – RENEWAL - COOPTATION

The term of office as member of the Board shall be three years. However, the ordinary general meeting of shareholders may, by exception, elect one or more Supervisory Board members for a term of less than three (3) years for the sole purpose of establishing a system of retirement by rotation such that only a proportion of the Supervisory Board members stands for re-election at any one time.

The duties of a member of the Supervisory Board shall end upon adjournment of the ordinary shareholders' meeting having ruled on the financial statements for the past fiscal year and held during the year in which the term of office of said member of the Supervisory Board expires.

Should a member of the Supervisory Board be appointed at the Executive Board, his/her position at the Board shall end from assumption of duties.

The members of the Supervisory Board may always be reelected subject to the provisions of the following paragraph. They may be dismissed at any time by decision of the ordinary shareholders' meeting.

The number of members over seventy years old may not be greater than one-third of the members forming the Supervisory Board, unless due to the following provisions. Any excess of such restriction shall be noticed each year during the meeting of the Supervisory Board related to the calling of the ordinary shareholders' meeting. The Supervisory Board shall then designate among its members being over seventy years old, that or those who will remain in office.

In case of vacancy, by death, limit of age or resignation, of one or more positions, the Supervisory Board may, between two shareholders' meetings, make interim appointments.

Appointments so made by the Supervisory Board shall be submitted to ratification of the next ordinary shareholders' meeting.

If such interim appointments are not ratified by the meeting, the deliberations taken and the actions carried out previously by the Board remain valid.

When the number of members of the Supervisory Board becomes lower than the minimum required by law, the Executive Board must immediately call the ordinary shareholders' meeting in order to complete the number of members of the Board.

The member of the Supervisory Board appointed to replace another one whose term of office has not expired, remains in office only during the remaining term of office of his/her predecessor.

When the Board neglects to make the required appointments or if the meeting is not called, any interested party may request before court the appointment of an agent in charge of calling the shareholders' meeting in order to make the appointments or ratify the appointments provided for above. The agent is appointed by the President of the Commercial Court having jurisdiction within the venue of the registered office ruling upon petition.

Article 12

SHARES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

Unless when the French Commercial Code exempts them for such obligation, each member of the Supervisory Board shall be bound to own sixty shares at least for his/her term of office.

If, when he/she is appointed, a member of the Supervisory Board does not own the number of shares required or if, during his/her term of office, he/she ceases being the owner thereof, he/she shall be deemed to be automatically resigning if he/she has not regularized his/her situation within six months.

Article 13

CHAIRMAN OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

The Supervisory Board shall appoint among its members a Chairman and one or more Vice Chairmen.

Under penalty of nullity of their appointment, the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be individuals.

The duties of the Chairman and Vice-Chairmen must end no later than upon adjournment of the ordinary shareholders' meeting following the date on which they reach the age of 68. However, the Supervisory Board, in the meeting following such shareholders' meeting, may, in one or more occasions, extend such limit for a term that may not exceed three years.

The Chairman, or in case he/she is absent, one of the Vice-Chairmen appointed for such purposes by the Board, shall act as chairman of the Board.

The Board shall appoint the Secretary of the Board who needs not be a member thereof.

Article 14

MEETINGS

The Supervisory Board shall meet as often as the company's interest requires, either at the registered office, or in any other place, upon notice given by the Chairman and shall review all issue included in the agenda by the Chairman or the Board ruling upon simple majority.

The notice shall be made by letter or through any other means.

However, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board must call the Board at a date not more than 15 days after when a member at least of the Executive Board or one-third at least of the members of the Supervisory Board present a request for cause therefore. If the request remains unanswered, its authors may call the meeting themselves by indicating the agenda.

The attendance of one-half at least of the members of the Supervisory Board is necessary for the validity of the deliberations. Any member of the Board may attend and take part in the meetings of the Supervisory Board by any means of telecommunication and remote transmission, including the Internet, within the limits and under the conditions set by internal rules, applicable law and regulations.

Members of the senior management may attend, with consultative votes, the meetings of the Board, at the Chairman's initiative.

The decisions shall be made upon majority of the members present or represented.

In case of a tie vote, the Chairman of the meeting shall have casting vote.

The submission of a copy or an extract from the minutes of deliberation is sufficient to bring evidence of the number of members of the Supervisory Board in exercise as well as their attendance or representation at a meeting of the Supervisory Board.

A member of the Supervisory Board may give, by letter, telex or telegram, power to another member of the Supervisory Board to represent him/her at a meeting of the Board. Each member of the Supervisory Board may have, during a same meeting, only one proxy so received.

The members of the Supervisory Board, as well as any person attending the meetings of the Supervisory Board, shall keep confidential the deliberations of the Board as well as any information having a confidential nature or presented as such by the Chairman.

In case of absence of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, the powers granted to him/her by this article shall be exercised by the Vice Chairman appointed by the Board for such purpose.

Article 15 WRITTEN CONSULTATION

Decisions falling specifically within the remit of the Supervisory Board may be made by written consultation, where those decisions are eligible for this option under Article L. 225-82 of the French Commercial Code. In the event of a written consultation, the author shall send the agenda of the consultation and the text of the draft decisions to all Supervisory Board members by any and all possible means.

The Supervisory Board members shall have eight (8) days from receipt of the agenda to cast and send their vote to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, by any and all written means. Should a member fail to respond within the aforementioned timeframe, said member shall be deemed to have cast a negative vote.

The Supervisory Board can only validly deliberate by written consultation if at least half of its members actively respond and cast their vote.

Decisions of the Supervisory Board are made based on a majority of votes cast by voting members.

Article 16
MINUTES

The minutes of deliberations of the Supervisory Board shall be prepared and copies or extracts of these minutes shall be delivered and certified in accordance with law.

Article 17

Such shareholders' meetings shall be called by the Executive Board or the Supervisory Board and, failing it, by the persons designated by the French Commercial Code. They rule in accordance with applicable legal and regulatory provisions.

The meetings shall take place either at the registered office or in any other place specified in the notice of meeting.

Article 27
RIGHT OF ACCESS – REPRESENTATION – QUORUM

The right to attend shareholders' meetings is contingent upon formal registration of the shares owned, either in nominative accounts maintained by the Company, or in security accounts maintained by a duly qualified intermediary, within the deadlines and in accordance with the conditions stipulated in regulations in force. If the shares are bearer shares, registration is evidenced by a certificate of participation delivered by the duly qualified intermediary.

The representation of the shareholders at the meetings shall be ensured in accordance with applicable laws and decrees.

The same applies for the communication of information to be provided or sent to shareholders.

The owners of securities mentioned in the seventh paragraph of Article L. 228-1 of the Commercial Code may be represented under the conditions provided for by law, by a registered intermediary.

Prior to any meeting, shareholders can vote or vote remotely as provided for by the applicable laws and regulations. In particular, in accordance with the conditions set out in the relevant laws and regulations, shareholders may vote by mail in the form of a paper absentee ballot, or, if the Executive Board or Supervisory Board so decides at the time of the notice of meeting, by electronic means using a form drawn up by the Company or its centralizing financial establishment. The ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings validly act only if they meet the quorum provided for by law. Such quorum shall be calculated compared to the total number of existing shares, subject to legal exceptions.

Should the Executive Board or the Supervisory Board decide it at the time of the calling of the meeting, the public retransmission of the entirety of the meeting by videoconference or through any telecommunication and remote transmission means, including the Internet, shall be authorized within the limits and under the conditions set by applicable legislation and regulations. Votes shall be expressed either by show of hands, or by nominal call, or by any means indicated in article 27 above, or by any other means enabling the votes to be counted.

Article 30
MINUTES – EXTRACTS

Minutes of the meetings shall be drawn up and copies or extracts thereof shall be certified and delivered in accordance with applicable laws and decrees.

TITRE VI
ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - INVENTORY - RESERVES AND CONTINGENCY FUND - DIVIDEND

Article 31
FISCAL YEAR – ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The fiscal year shall begin on January 1st and end on December 31.

The Executive Board shall draw up, at the end of each fiscal year, the inventory and annual financial statements, and consolidated financial statements, if any, that it shall submit for audit and control to the Supervisory Board; it shall prepare a management report under the applicable legal and regulatory conditions.

All such documents shall be made available for Statutory Auditors under legal and regulatory conditions.

Article 32
APPROPRIATION OF EARNINGS – RESERVES

An amount of at least 5%, if necessary after deduction of the loss carried forward, shall be deducted from the profit of the fiscal year, in order to build up the reserve provided for by law until the day these reserves amount to one tenth of the share capital.

The balance increased by the carry forward results, if any, shall make up the distributable profit on which the amounts that the shareholders' meeting, upon proposal of the Executive Board, after consent of the Supervisory Board, will deem useful to allocate to one or more facultative, ordinary or extraordinary reserve, will be successively withdrawn, with or without special allocation, or carry forward.

The balance shall be divided among the shares.

Any shareholder other than a physical person

- (i) who directly or indirectly holds, on the dividend payout date, at least 10% of the dividend entitlements of the company, and
- (ii) whose own situation or that of its partners who directly or indirectly hold, for the purpose of any dividend distribution, 10% or more of its dividend entitlements, renders the company liable for the 20% withholding mentioned in Article 208 C II ter of the French General Tax Code (Code Général des Impôts), referred to as the Withholding (a shareholder in this situation referred to hereinafter as a Shareholder Subject to the Withholding), shall be liable to the company, at the time of any such dividend distribution, for an amount equal to the amount of the Withholding payable by the company in respect of said distribution.

In the event that the company comes to own, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of one or more SIICs (Sociétés d'Investissements Immobiliers Cotées) mentioned in Article 208 C of the French Tax Code (an "SIIC Daughter Company"), the Shareholder Subject to the Withholding shall also owe the company, on the date the dividend is available for payment, an amount equal to the difference (the "Difference") between (i) the amount that would have been paid to the company by one or more SIIC Daughter Companies if the latter had not been subject to the Withholding because of the Shareholder Subject to the Withholding, multiplied by the percentage of dividend entitlements held by shareholders other than the Shareholder Subject to the Withholding, and (ii) the amount that was in fact paid by the SIIC Daughter Company or Companies, multiplied by the percentage of dividend entitlements held by shareholders other than the Shareholder Subject to the Withholding, such that the other shareholders do not have to bear any portion whatsoever of the Withholding paid by any of the SIICs in the equity ownership chain because of the Shareholder Subject to the Withholding. The shareholders other than the Shareholders Subject to the Withholding will be creditors with respect to the company, for an amount equal to the Difference, adjusted to reflect their dividend entitlements.

If there is more than one Shareholder Subject to the Withholding, each Shareholder Subject to the Withholding shall be liable to the company for the share of the total Withholding owed by the company and generated by its share of ownership. The status of Shareholder Subject to the Withholding shall be determined on the basis of the dividend payout date.

Unless otherwise indicated in disclosures made available in compliance with the sixth point under Article 7 of the company bylaws, all shareholders (other than a physical person who owns or comes to own at least 10% of the stated capital, directly or indirectly) shall be assumed to be Shareholders Subject to the Withholding.

The payout of all distributions payable to a Shareholder Subject to the Withholding shall be made by way of registration in an individual current account on the part of this shareholder (non-interest bearing); the current account shall be reimbursed within five business days of the date of this registration, after offsetting to reflect the sums payable by the Shareholder Subject to the Withholding to the company in application of the provisions provided hereinabove.

The shareholders' meeting, ruling on the financial statements for the fiscal year, shall have the right to grant to each shareholder, for all or part of the dividend paid out, the option of paying the dividend in cash or in shares. Such option may also be granted in the event of distribution of interim dividends. For all payouts in the form of shares, the Shareholder Subject to the Withholding will receive a portion in shares, it being specified that there will be no fractional shares created and the Shareholder Subject to the Withholding shall receive a cash amount corresponding to the value of the fractional shares (the latter payable via registration in an individual current account), such that the offsetting mechanism described above can be applied to the fraction of the distribution paid out by registration in an individual current account.

Except in the event of a capital reduction, no distribution will be made to shareholders when the equity capital is or becomes, further to such distribution, lower than the amount of the capital increased by reserves which by law or under these bylaws may not be distributed.

TITLE VII

Article 33 DISSOLUTION

In case of dissolution of the company and subject to legal provisions applicable at that time, the shareholders' meeting shall determine the form of liquidation, shall appoint liquidators upon proposal of the Executive Board and shall exercise all the powers granted to it by law during the liquidation and until the closing.

Article 34 DISPUTES
