

PRESS RELEASE

KLÉPIERRE APPOINTS CÉCILE PRESTA CHIEF HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICER AND MAGALI FERNANDES CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER

Paris, November 16, 2020

Klépierre, the European leader in shopping malls, is announcing the appointment of Cécile Presta as Chief Human Resources Officer, and Magali Fernandes as Chief Legal Officer.

Cécile Presta has extensive experience in human resources. After exploring all facets of the profession in the fields of consulting and industry, she joined Coca-Cola European Partners, where she held several positions over six years, including Head of Talent Management for France. More recently, she served as Head of Human Resources at Lafarge Holcim group headquarters.

Magali Fernandes has more than 15 years of experience working as a lawyer first at White & Case and then at Herbert Smith Freehills. A specialist in corporate law and governance, mergers and acquisitions, and capital markets law, she has advised a long list of companies operating in real estate, regulated and other industries on French and international transactions.

“I am delighted to welcome Cécile and Magali to our management team. They have the expertise and energy needed to support our teams throughout Europe. Cécile will bring her know-how in developing skills and building a strong corporate culture. Magali, who has a thorough understanding of our industry and has worked on many transactions similar to the ones we carry out, will help us reinforce our legal practice and further improve the quality of our governance,” said Jean-Marc Jestin, Chairman of the Klépierre Executive Board.

Cécile Presta and Magali Fernandes will report to Klépierre’s General Secretary and will both be members of the Corporate Management Team.
